Last Update 29 April 2024 NBA Playoffs First Round - Game 4

Knicks lead the series 2-1

When: Sunday, April 28 at 1 p.m. EDT

Where: Wells Fargo Center, Philadelphia

TV channel: ABC

Live streams: FuboTV (free trial), DirecTV Stream (free trial), Sling (low intro rate).

Joel Embiid had a monster night in the 76ers' Game 3 victory Thursday night, pouring in 50 points and hitting 19 of his 21 free throw attempts. Still working his way back from a knee injury, Embiid's 50-point effort served as a fresh reminder of what the Sixers can do when they're playing at full strength. Embiid was a matchup nightmare for the Knicks and could be once again as the 76ers look to pull even in the best-of-seven series. The Knicks took both games in New York before falling in Game 3. Saturday's Game 4 serves as an important opportunity for the Knicks to take back home-court advantage, and for the Sixers to climb the whole way back into the series.

The Knicks did enough offensively to take Game 3 on the road, but Embiid led a Sixers offense that knocked down 13 three-pointers and held an advantage at the charity stripe behind Embiid's big showing. Jaylen Brunson led the way for New York with 39 points and 13 assists.

The Lakers have one last shot at remaining in the 2024 NBA Playoffs as they host the Denver Nuggets in Game 4 of their Western Conference first-round series. This rematch of last year's Western Conference Finals could soon be over as Los Angeles finds themselves on the brink of elimination. Tip-off is scheduled for 5:30 p.m. PT from Crypto.com Arena today.

Los Angeles fell to the Nuggets in Game 3 on Thursday, 112-105, falling behind 3-0 in the series. Despite holding double-digit leads in each of their three playoff games against Denver, every contest has ended in a loss for the Lakers. With Thursday's win, Denver has now beaten the Lakers 11 straight times.
